Cynthia Theint Soe with fellow artists, ABB Yangon, 2017

FREE WORKSHOP

Exploring Social Issues
in Your Artwork
A Free Workshop with Cynthia Theint Soe,
Mie Preckler, and Pamela Blotner
Friday, March 9, 11 AM – 2 PM
Gallery Route One

Guided by exhibiting artist Cynthia Theint Soe, we will look at how traditional Myanmar mythology and symbols are used in contemporary art. We will examine issues of social justice in Myanmar and the U.S. to compare and contrast, exploring areas of crossover in our artmaking.

Workshop participants will create both individual and collaborative works on paper using Burmese and Western materials provided by the workshop.

Space is limited, please sign up in advance;
email: projectspace@galleryrouteone.org.

FREE FILM SCREENING

"Sittwe," Jeanne Hallacy
Free Film Screening and Talk by the Director
Saturday, March 31, 6:30 – 9 PM
Dance Palace Community Center
503 B St, Point Reyes Station, CA 94956

This short documentary film looks at two teenagers affected by conflict in Burma's Rakhine state in 2012. Phyu Phyu Than, a Rohingya Muslim girl, and Aung San Myint, a Buddhist boy, were both displaced by communal violence.

Director Jeanne Hallacy, recently returned from filming in the refugee camps of Bangladesh, will speak and answer questions after the screening.

Light refreshments will be served.
