

YOU ARE INVITED

To take a Workshop! Watch artists at work! Make your own artwork!

Gallery Route One will open its doors to offer free creative activities
Friday, April 19th through Sunday, May 5th (Closed Tuesdays)

Witness an artist's creative process, take a workshop, or get your hands on some art materials and do your own thing. Lots of hands-on opportunities for art-making will be available for adults, youth and kids, all activities are free! Materials provided! GRO can be your studio.

Some of the things you can do:

Make a Cyanotype • paint • draw • make a costume and perform in it • sketch with charcoal
• make a collage • make a zine • use a stencil with home-made inks • watch a portrait painter at work • make a clear mold • bind a book • collaborate on a giant drawing • work on your own project or work with others, and more!
